

BIOGRAPHY

COLONEL WILLIAM H. MESKILL

Colonel William H. Meskill is the Commander of the Massachusetts Wing, Civil Air Patrol. In this capacity, he provides leadership to over 900 Senior Members and cadets assigned to Massachusetts Wing. As a Wing Commander, he also serves as a member of the National Staff of Civil Air Patrol, located at Maxwell AFB, AL.

Before his election as CAP's Wing Commander, Colonel Meskill served as Massachusetts Wing Vice Commander.

Colonel Meskill joined Civil Air Patrol in June 1985, while assigned to Massachusetts Wing as the USAF Reserve Assistance Coordinator. While in the USAFR he served as a Squadron Liaison Officer, Wing Reserve Assistance Coordinator, and Acting Wing Liaison Officer. A 26-year USAF officer Colonel Meskill served in North American Aerospace Defense Command, Tactical Air Command, Alaskan Air Command, and Air Force Systems Command.

His Military and Civil Air Patrol Awards include the Joint Service Commendation Medal, USAF Commendation Medal, USAF Meritorious Service Medal, the Civil Air Patrol Gill Robb Wilson award, Brig Gen Charles E "Chuck" Yeager Aerospace Achievement award and the Wing Staff Member of the Year Award.

Colonel Meskill holds a Masters Degree, Speech, Concentration in Technical Theater; Montclair State University and a Bachelors Degree, English from St. Michael's College.

